

Contact Us • Program Schedule • Our Team • Advertise With Us • DTV Answers

HOME NEWS SPORTS WEATHER COMMUNITY DIRECTORY ON KTVO3

SEARCH KTVO3 ONLINE

Home > News : Story

State
Nation/World
Crime
Health

Special Features

Elections 2008
Business and Technology
Entertainment News
Fact Finder
'Ordinary to Extraordinary' form
Recalled Items
Strange News

Money to Milan Schools RSS Feeds

Posted: Tuesday, January 15, 2008 at 2:57 p.m.

The Milan school district is getting some cash from a Milan business. Smithfield Foods, owners of Premium Standard Farms, is donating $75,000 to the school district's learning resource center. This is part of Smithfield's "learners to leaders" program.

The money is set to be used to provide the library at the school district with additional resource materials, like books, encyclopedias and software, including software for English language learners.

Smithfield is the largest pork producer in the country.

Comments

Comments are the sole responsibility of the person posting them; they are not reflective of the views or opinions of Barrington Broadcasting, KTVO3, its directors or employees.

If you believe a comment violates the Barrington Terms of Use, please report it here.

Submit a comment about this story

No comments yet.

Latest News

Local

- Super billboards showing results for Super Tuesday
• Burglar hits Blackjack
• Train derails blocking tracks

More Local News...

State

- State penitentiary plan needs more work
• Snow, then rain, then more snow
• Two brothers die in SE Iowa crash

More State News...

Nation/World

- Abercrombie & Fitch obscenity charge
• Yankee pitcher speaks to congress on steroids
• Clinton visits alma mater on Super Tuesday eve

More National/World News...

About Us | Contact Us | Advertise With Us | Privacy Policy | Terms of Use